Squirrelkit: YES! I knew it! Leafkit was just joking when she told me that he wanted to destroy all the clans and take over all the forest and then kill all the kittypets and have all cats rule under him like his personal own slaves!

Cooking ft. Leafpool

A/N Hello peeps!! I am glad that a lot of people are enjoying this book, and am sorry that we haven't updated in like 10 million years. SORRY! Haha I am kinda the..only one..writing this book..right now... ENJOY! -Bramble Leafpool: Welcome, cats, to this brand new show! Here I will tell you my super duper secret recipe to waffles (aka Firestar's death)!!

Jaypaw: mumbles and I'm your handy dandy assistant

Leafpool: slaps Jaypaw stop being grumpy, Grumpy Cat

Jaypaw: rolls eyes

Leafpool: So, anyways back to the cooking. the FIRST ingredient to Firestar's Death is.... MICE!!

Jaypaw: hands Leafpool some mice

Leafpool: the recipe calls for 8 mice. Mush them up into a nice thick pulp.... crushes the mice with rocks Next you need some leaf plates..

Jaypaw: hands Leafpool some dock leaves

Leafpool: put the leaves under the pulp to serve as a plate. Then slap them in the oven!! throws them inside a rock oven

Jaypaw: turns oven to 1000 degrees

Leafpool: now all you need is an extra 3 years on your paws for them to cook throughly.

Three Years Later

Leafpool: opens oven Ahhh that nice smell of cooked waffles smells so nice. There is only one more step! Jaypaw, hand me the topping

Jaypaw: hands Leafpool a leaf full of mouse bile

Leafpool: mmm that smells great! almost passes out

Leafpool: Now, as a secret ingredient that is super important, put a good glob of mouse bile on the top. The kits will love it! slaps a large hunk of mouse bile on the waffle

Jaypaw: the last step is feed it to Firestar!!

Firestar: walks in what was that?

Leafpool: YOUR BREAKFAST!! slaps Firestar with waffle

Firestar: dies
